

EDMONTON
ARTISTS,
YOU'RE INVITED!

IN PERSON DROP-IN APPLICATION ASSISTANCE SESSIONS FOR ARTISTS

The Edmonton Arts Council is dedicated to supporting artists in our community. With our Equity and Access in the Arts grant program, the EAC provides funding for artists and arts professionals from Indigenous and equity-seeking communities to help them experiment, grow their careers, and complete their upcoming projects. Our next grant deadline is June 15, 2023.

If you're ready to apply and would like some assistance with filling out your application, we welcome you to attend one of our upcoming drop-in sessions.

UPCOMING IN PERSON DROP-IN SESSIONS

Thursday May 25, 1:00 - 3:30pm

Friday June 9, 10:00 am - 12:30 pm

Edmonton Arts Council
Prince of Wales Armouries
Lestock Lounge on 2nd Floor
10440 108 Avenue, Edmonton

 Due to the LRT tracks on 108 Ave, vehicles can only access the building's parking lot from 106 St. The nearest transit station is the Kingsway/Royal Alex. The south facing front doors are always locked. Please buzz in using the doorbell on the right side of the main entrance and let the building administrator know that you are here to visit the Edmonton Arts Council.*

WHO IS IT FOR?

- Eligible individuals and collectives with an artistic project occurring after June 15, 2023.
- Those experiencing difficulty with the technology needed to complete their application.
- Those that would like a little extra help reviewing the questions asked in the application.
- Those that prefer in-person assistance with their applications as opposed to online or over the phone.

WHAT TO BRING

- Your biography.
- Your artist statement.
- Your artist CV/Resume, as well as those of your collective members and/or mentors.
- A basic plan for your project, including how and when you want to complete it.
- Your budget for the project.
- Supporting material that can include text, photo, audio, or video samples of your work.
- Anything else that you think would be helpful when completing your application.

 Laptops will be provided on a first come first served basis, but you can also bring your own.*
