Spring Break on the Square!

Edmonton... Beat Spring Break boredom! From noon to 4:00 pm, March 28 to April 1, the Edmonton Arts Council (EAC) will be filling Sir Winston Churchill Square with family fun for spring break. EAC's Happenings on the Square will host free, drop-in activities for children of all ages and interests.

Come to the Square to enjoy:

- Picnics in the Pyramid of Seasons
- Improvized theatre adventures with EPIC? The Journey
- Lightsaber training for young Padawans
- DJ CreeAsian and CypherWild YEG pumping out beats and providing b-boy lessons
- Street art around the Square
- In addition, games of table tennis, basketball, giant checkers, and more!

The Square is easily accessible via public transportation. A mud-free area for children to play, various food vendors, and nearby public washrooms makes Sir Winston Churchill Square an ideal venue for a family outing. The new addition of the Pyramid of Seasons allows activities to continue regardless of unpredictable spring weather conditions.

The EAC, in partnership with the City of Edmonton, programs activity and event happenings in Sir Winston Churchill Square for casual and day-to-day public use between major festivals and civic events. Since August 2011, EAC Churchill Square Programmer Bob Rasko has produced a diverse schedule of offerings open to the public including: Sunday Swing 'n Skate, Live at Lunch, and Zumba on the Square.
