Have yourself a merry little TIX-mas

Edmonton... Meet local artists at TIX on the Square's annual TIX-mas Party! On Saturday, November 21, local TIX artists will be in store creating fabulous artworks and answering all your questions. Enjoy hot apple cider, hot chocolate, festive treats and cookies from Bloom while you shop.

When: November 21, 10:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.
What: Open house and artist demonstrations
Where: TIX on the Square (9930 – 102 Ave)

Visiting TIX Artists:

The duo of Valerie and Kathleen Bear make up Sister Bear Designs. Originally from northwestern Ontario, the sisters continue to honour their Anishnaabe (Ojibway) culture through their bead and leatherwork. Self-taught in needle felting, Holly Boone creates charming creatures for children and adults. Maggie Murray of Delvin Design celebrates her Celtic roots in her unique wire jewelry. The delightful and multi-talented Wilfred Kozub will be highlighting his painting skills. Erik Lee incorporates Indigenous Plains Cree motifs through his refined silver jewelry.

Located on the southwest corner of Churchill Square, TIX on the Square is a not-for-profit box office and store owned and operated by the Edmonton Arts Council. For more information about TIX on the Square, visit tixonthesquare.ca
