Celebrate Star Wars Day with free lightsaber training at Churchill Square

Edmonton... Do you have what it takes to protect Churchill Square from the dark side of the force? In a galaxy not so far away, the Edmonton Arts Council's (EAC) Happenings on the Square will honour Star Wars Day with a free celebration of all things Star Wars! On May the Fourth, channel your inner Jedi and stop by Churchill Square as we kick off the first night of lightsaber training with instructor Janine Waddell-Hodder. Adult lessons take place 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., with a special session for young padawans from 7:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

When: Wednesday, May 4, 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

What: Free lightsaber training

Where: Churchill Square

May the Fourth marks the start of our spring programming, including the return of Zumba, yoga, and Churchill Circuit. Live at Lunch starts May 5 (Cinco de Mayo) with a performance by Marco Claveria, and Cypherwild launches at 6 p.m. on May 5th.

The Edmonton Arts Council (EAC), in partnership with the City of Edmonton, programs activity and event happenings in Sir Winston Churchill Square for casual and day-to-day public use between major festivals and civic events. Since August 2011, EAC Churchill Square Programmer Bob Rasko has produced a diverse schedule of offerings open to the public including: Sunday Swing 'n Skate, Live at Lunch, and Zumba on the Square.
